March 17th is an important day for the Irish people. On that day they celebrate Saint Patrick’s Day. Saint Patrick brought Christianity to Ireland in the 4th century. In Ireland St. Patrick’s Day is a holiday. Shops close on that day. Restaurants open that day and people go out to eat. Many Irish people live in countries around the world. The Irish celebrate St. Patrick’s Day in the countries they live.

Write on the lines the name of the object that is described.

1. You wear this on your head. ________________________________
2. It is long and has poison. ________________________________
3. Many people eat this on Saint Patrick’s day. ________________________________
4. It is a very small person. ________________________________
5. It is the color used by the Irish. ________________________________
6. It has four corners and a circle in the middle. ________________________________
7. It is half a circle and has seven colors. ________________________________
8. Yellow metal that is expensive. ________________________________
9. People say that you find this at the end of a rainbow. ________________________________
10. You play it to make music. ________________________________
11. Name of the Irish saint. ________________________________
12. A small green leaf. ________________________________

March 17th is an important day for the Irish people. On that day they celebrate Saint Patrick’s Day. Saint Patrick brought Christianity to Ireland in the 4th century. In Ireland St. Patrick’s Day is a holiday. Shops close on that date. Restaurants open that day and people go out to eat. Many Irish people live in countries around the world. The Irish celebrate St. Patrick’s Day in the countries they live.